

ROBIN HILLS FARM

GUEST RULES

Always be respectful.

For the safety and enjoyment of all guests and to protect the beauty and ecology of Robin Hills Farm, please respect our rules during your visit:

- Stay on designated pathways/trails.
- Do not climb on trees, walls, rocks, fences, or gates.
- Do not enter, wade, or swim in ponds, streams, or creeks.
- Supervise children at all times.
- Picnicking is allowed only in pavilions and designated areas.

- Cutting, picking, removal, and destruction of plant life or property is prohibited.
- Shoes and shirts must be worn at all times.
- Smoking, chewing tobacco, e-cigarettes or similar devices are not permitted—we are a smoke-free environment.
- Photography for personal use may be taken in all public areas, unless noted otherwise.
- Do not enter private property. Private property is not part of the farm and entering is trespassing.
- Food and drinks are not allowed in the Garden and Pasture area.

- Due to Michigan state law, no alcohol may be brought onto the grounds or facilities, and will be confiscated. Violators may be asked to leave the premises.
- Do not feed or handle wildlife.
- Properly trained service animals are welcome. Please refer to our Dog Policy online at www.robinhillsfarm.com/dogpolicy
- Cycling is permitted on the designated pathways and trails. Pedestrians have the right of way at all times. Please refer to our Cycling Policy online at www.robinhillsfarm.com/cyclingpolicy
